Dear Esther:
Through Mrs. Ziring I have heard of your kindly inquiries about me to and first-hand to you. I am quite feeble but have the dearest daughter to unselfishly care for me. We have many financial worries which add to her burden. I hope you are comfortable. All the years intervening have not blotted out the memory of the happy days in the woods in front of your old home. All the Goffstown relatives are well and my brothers never fail to write us every week. With all good wishes from us both – your old friend Carrie R. Tewksbury.
